YEAR GETS OFF TO BUSY START

Snow! Snow! and NO SCHOOL!! That is for Craig McDonald who makes up a test after being in an accident.

New building for the ag and shop classes going up.

Freshmen, Tim Moffitt and Bob Manuzak, discover, after walking downstairs, that they were on a one-way stair--the wrong way!

EACH CLASS HAS MEMORABLE EVENTS

Make way for the Seniors! John, Jerry, Carol, and Pat display their Senior tams to the underclassmen.

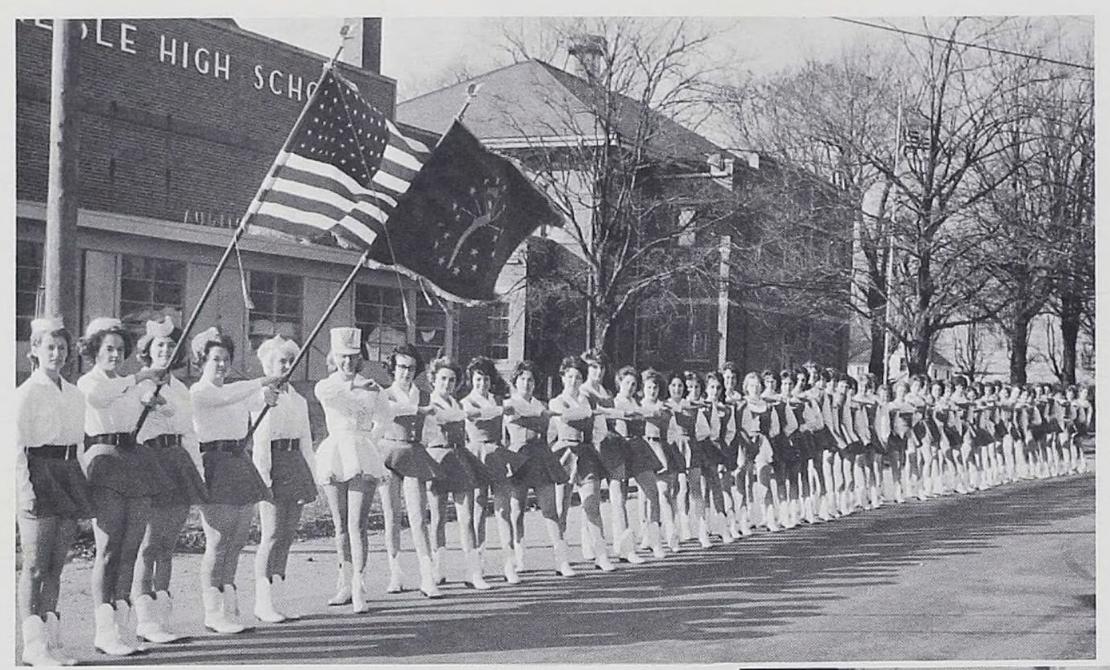

"When the vote is due . . . go Sophomore blue!" Margie and Joyce try to persuade Jim Pietrzak to vote for powder blue class jackets.

Sue bubbles with enthusiasm as she "shows off" her new class ring to Jim Falk and Bron Wolff.

The Tigerettes practice a new step during an inspection before their performance.

"Can't go all night without food." Some busy Lions take orders from hungry fans.

Gene blocks an opponent as Chip tries for a gain.

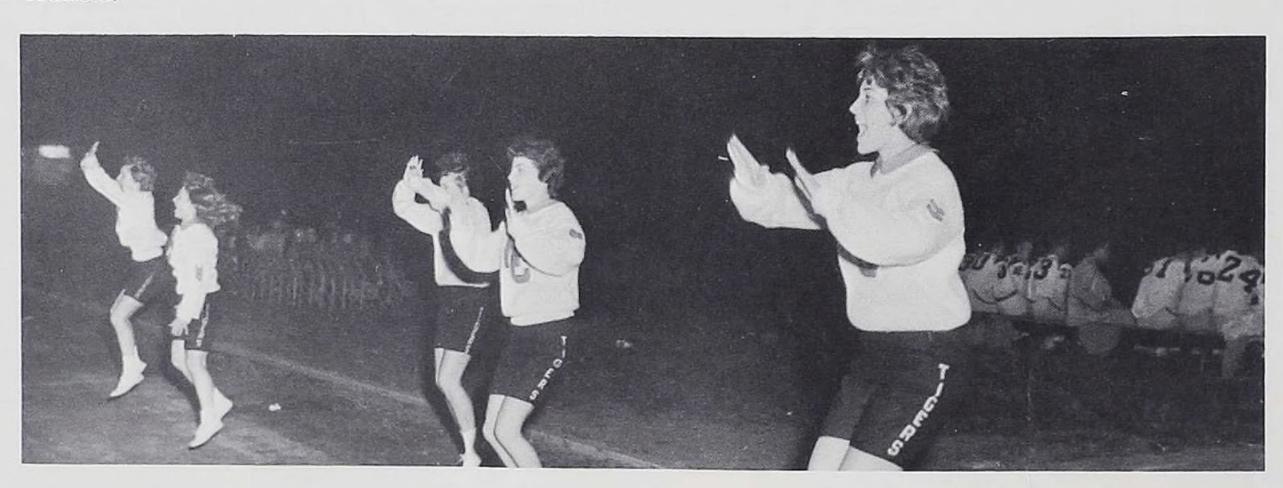

A future Olive Branch editor meets one of the hazards of her position.

"Let's win, Tigers!" urge the varsity cheer-leaders.

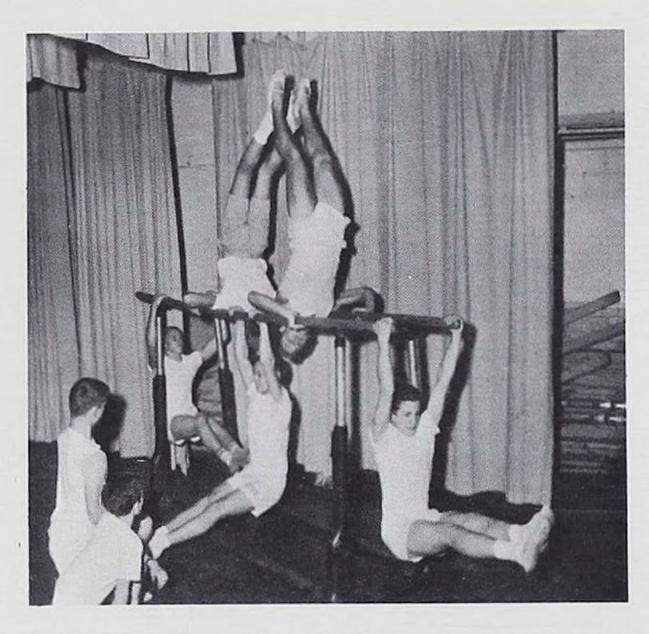

Carolyn and Pat, Junior Tuberculosis League members, deliver some information while promoting the TB Speech Contest.

Pat and John gladly take Randy's coat as they work at the Hi-Y Coat Check during a home basketball game.

Some members of the gymnastics team warn-up before a meet.

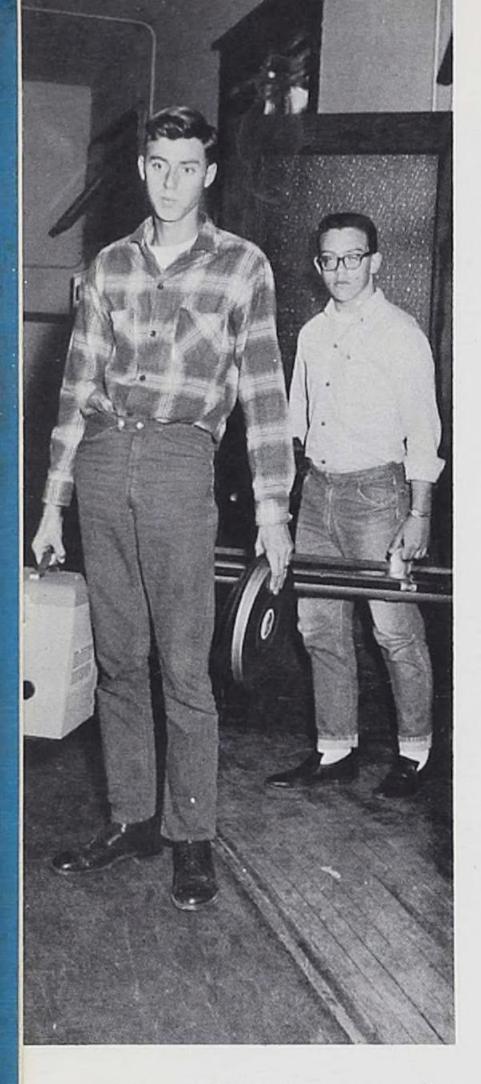

The Student Council officers study plans for making the school a better place.

CLUBS PROVIDE SERVICES FOR OTHERS

Barb is all smiles as she is installed the new Health Careers president.

John and Hugh prepare for another strenuous day at the studio.

Laura Lou is outstanding as these Junior beauties prepare to go before the cameras.

"Did he make it?" These fellows spent the entire day at the FFA tractor pull, and many walked away with prizes.

ORGANIZATIONS MAKE SCHOOL LIFE VIVID

Linda Berning gives John Frantom one of the first copies of this year's free Tattler.

Pete Gunn, alias Don Heinek, cracks another case for the Olive Branch.

SENIORS PRESENT DRAMA

"The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners" was presented by the Class of '63. The gray hair that now sprinkles Miss Hunsberger and Mr. Tiritter's hair was made worth while by the success of the play.

The drama displayed how carelessness led to the death of a high school boy. When the students hold a trial the janitor is accused, but later all the citizens are proven guilty.

Sharon Shepherd, student director along with cast and class will recall this key to success.

"Stop it!" yells Mr. Prince as Kovey rushes toward Tommy who has just accused him of murdering Bill McGinnis.

CLASS

Mrs. Brummitt demonstrates good posture to her speech class using Chuck as an example. Besides speech, there is literature, composition, spelling and vocabulary, and grammar. These classes are on a rotation basis with the other teachers being Mrs. Balmer and Mr. Gloss.

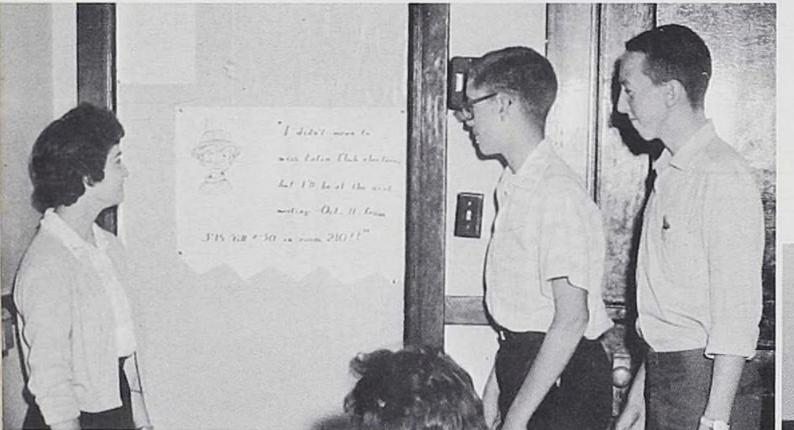

These students of Mr. Batchelder's reading lab are using a new method to improve their reading skill. It is called the readlisten method. Records and blow-ups of pages are also aids used by this class for improvement.

Yes, the records these students are carrying are their homework in Mr. Overmyer's Spanish class. The teaching method has changed this year and for the most part, just conversational Spanish is learned. The grammar of the language will be picked up gradually by the students.

Susie is leading her colleagues in one of the many panel discussions undertaken by the Senior English class. This course is mainly for students desiring to go to college. Mrs. Bechtel tries to vary the year to include those things that will be most helpful to the future college freshman.

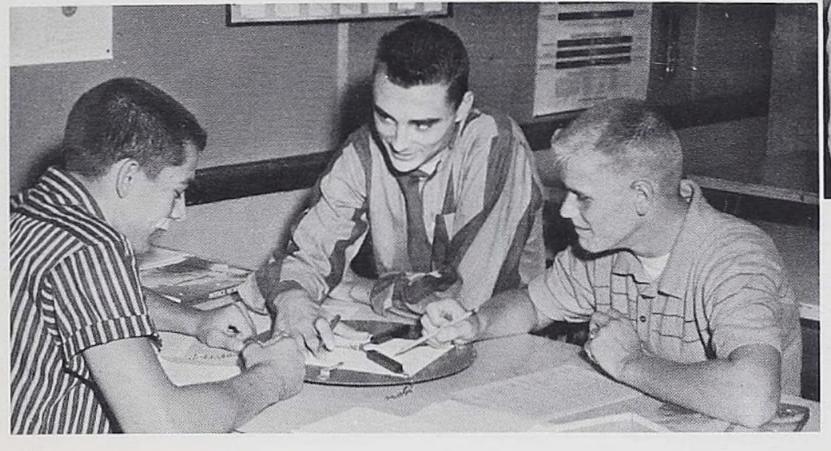

As these students prepare to take their seats in Latin class, they stop to read the poster announcing the coming Latin Club meeting. The course is taught by Mrs. Bechtel, who aims to make the study of the "dead language" come alive again.

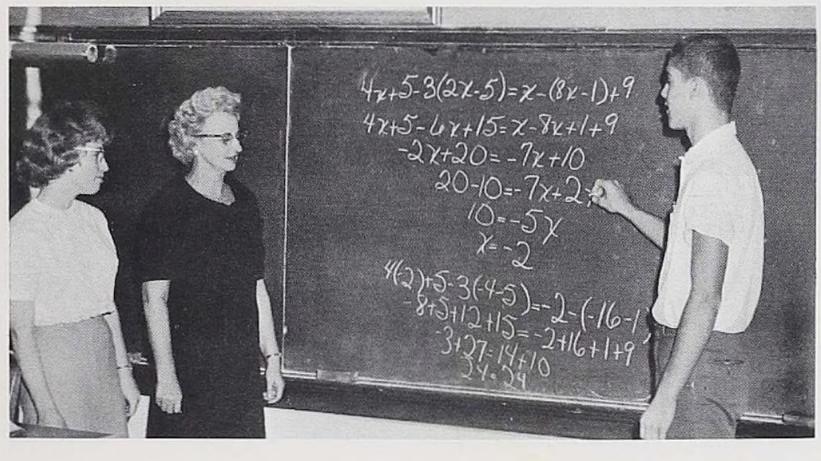

This is the second year for the French class to be using records to aid them in the pronunciation of the French language. Although these students enjoy listening to the records we secretly know they would rather listen to Mr. Gloss' genuine French accent.

SCENES

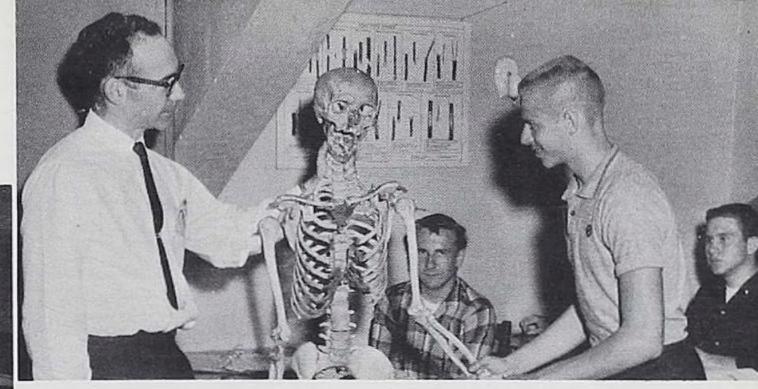

Don, Jim, and Garold are involved in a physics project for Mr. Pfeiffer's room. This is the most advanced science course offered at New Carlisle. It is the study of physical reaction and the changes, properties, and interaction of matter and energy.

These two advanced algebra students seem puzzled by the unusual problem given them by Mrs. Crouch. Other classes are taught by Mr. Noel.

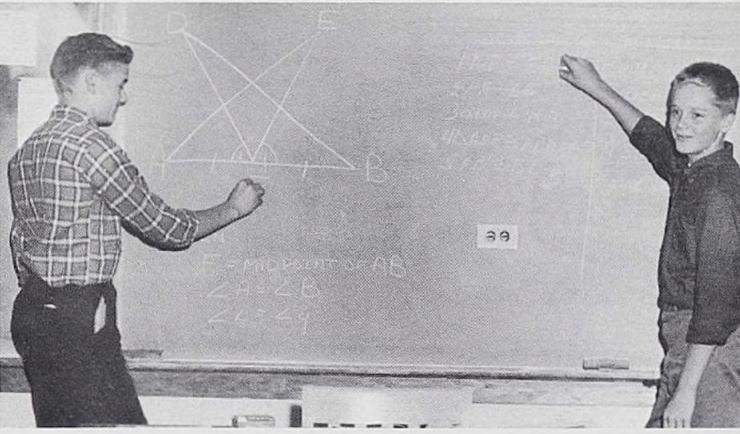

These students are in a fifth year math course which is under the direction of Mr. Pfeiffer. It included parts of all types of math.

"May I have this dance?" asks Ron of the biology skeleton. This is a required course taught by Mr. Calhoun and Mrs. Schnick. It is a study of plants and animals, and a biological collection of some sort is usually made.

Chemistry has a new teacher this year, but the same old problem of acquainting students with its elements, compounds, and experiments. Mr. Voorheis is the man who has taken the task of instructing the students in this science.

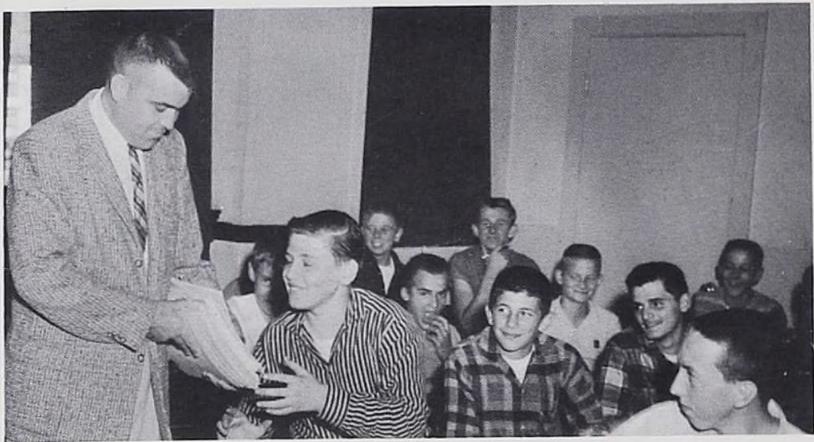

Mr. Noel has these plane geometry students busy writing out proofs on the board. This course enhances reasoning power. Mr. Voorheis also teaches this subject.

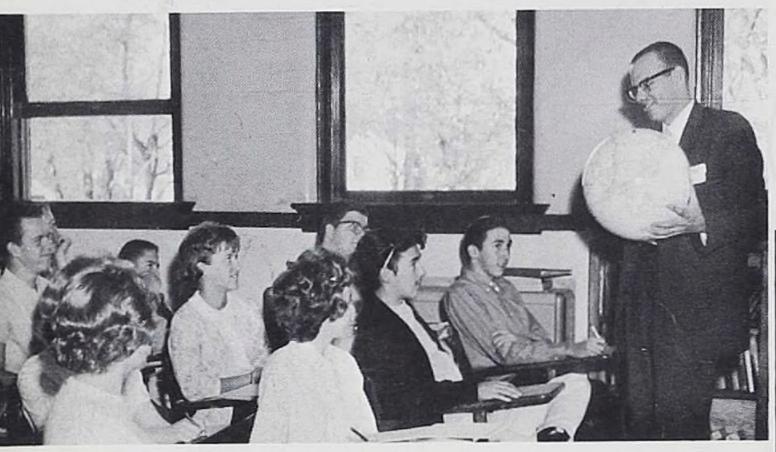

CLASS

Mr. Stutsman utilizes one of his many charts to emphasize a point in civics. This is the only full year required course for Seniors and serves as an information station for all Senior activities.

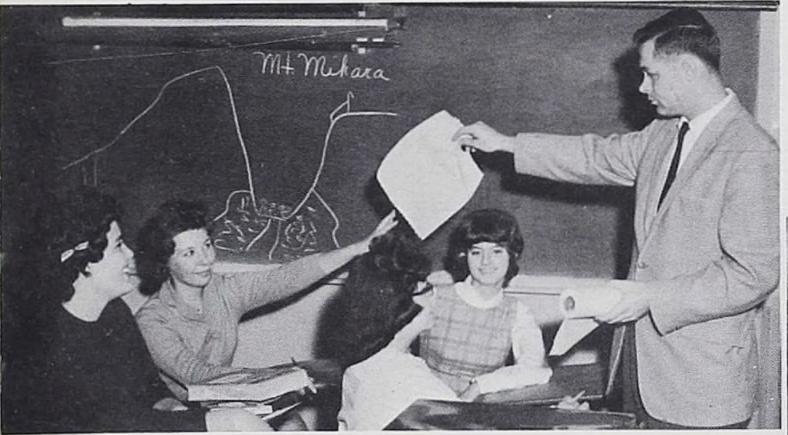

Larry willingly offers to help Mr. Thomas carry his stack of occupational folders. Each Freshman will be laboring away on a paper written on some desired occupation. It also involves the study of our government.

Mr. Hans shows his World History class the globe to stress the point that they will be doing a lot of study on foreign countries. This course is also taught by Mr. Fike.

Although United States History is required of all Juniors, Mr. Gamble makes it quite interesting, especially with his series of Civil War papers. Debates, panel discussions, and group work are other ways the course is developed.

Mr. Fike is going through one of his daily routines in psychology and sociology class. When students sob that they cannot understand the relatively hard concept of the subjects, he sympathizes greatly by offering a towel.

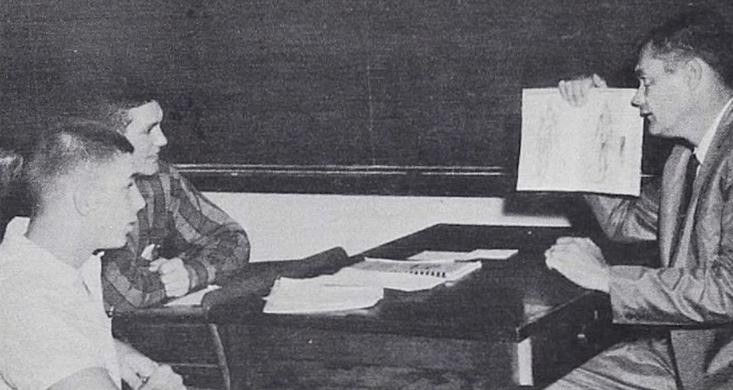

Miss Morton saves the day for Larry and Jerry by finding them the book they had been looking for. It is always a wonder how Miss Morton can always go right to that certain book we absolutely cannot find.

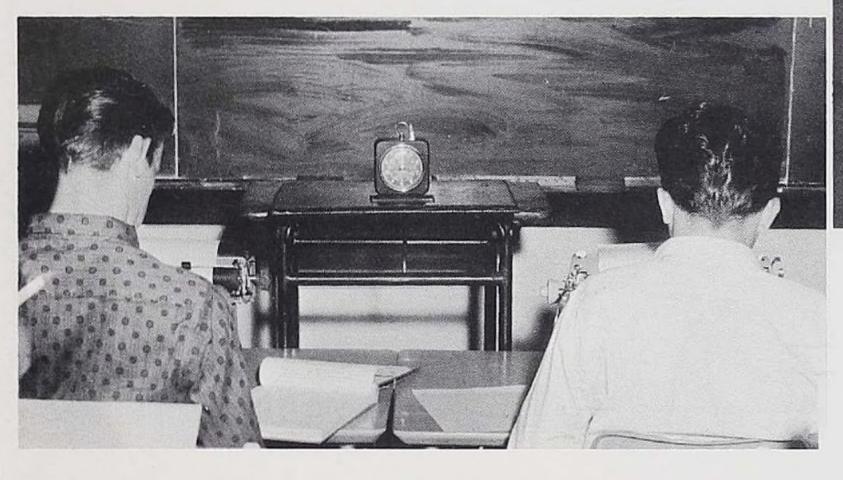

SCENES

Jim seems interested in this general business film. This subject deals with learning the basic functions of business procedure. It is taught by Mr. Zielinski and Mr. Rush.

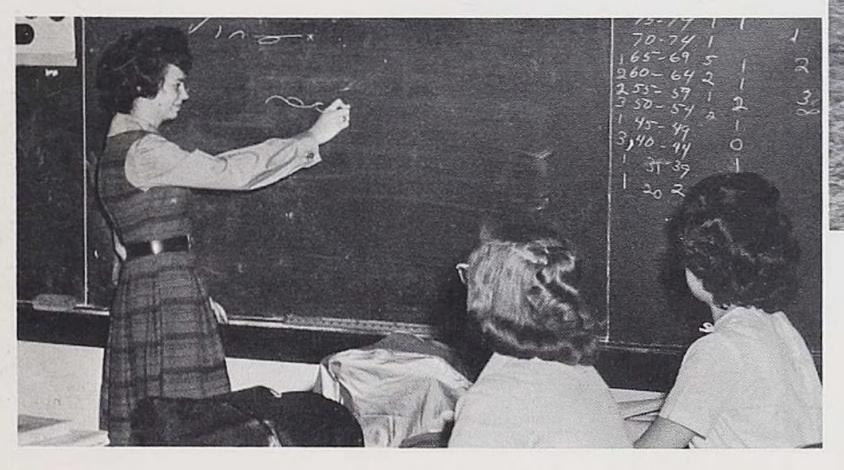

Mr. Lynch points out the parts of the skeleton to the boys' health class. The girls' class is taught by Mrs. Schnick. It is a required course lasting one semester.

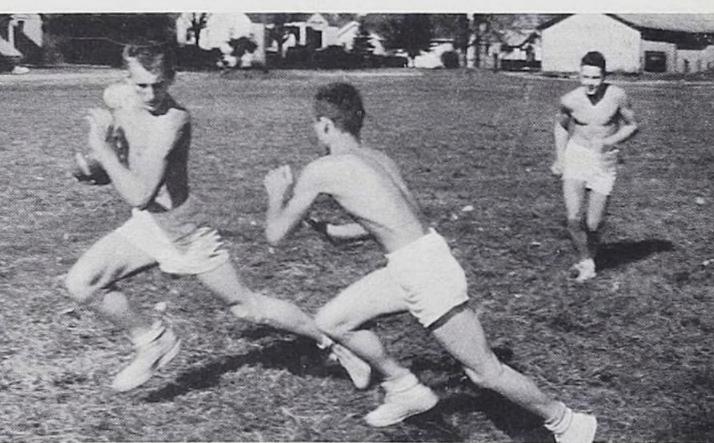

Typing involves finger dexterity, speed, and accuracy. These boys are taking a timed test to check how many words per minute they can type. The course is taught by Mr. Shaw and Mr. Haag.

Mrs. Schnick is the lady responsible for seeing that these young ladies learn to keep their bodies strong and physically fit. These students are practicing basketball shots to improve their accuracy and coordination.

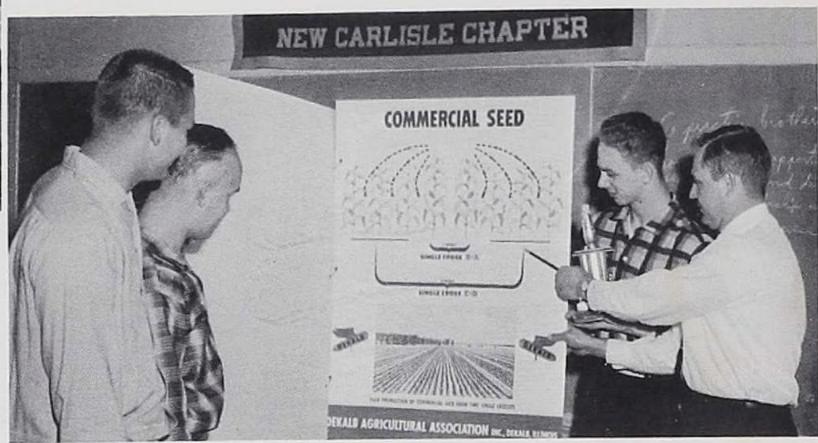

Carol, as secretary of the week in shorthand class, gives the rest of the girls their assignment. Two years of this course are offered and both are taught by Mr. Haag.

Much of the time in the boys' gym classes is spent playing football, under the direction of Mr. Rush. Besides playing sports, the classes undergo a rigorous round of calisthenics each day.

Mr. Tolmen, a new teacher at NCHS, gets a new shop. He is showing Dean and Quentin where to put the equipment. He also teaches mechanical drawing which includes drawings of machinery and a house.

Mr. Robinson goes over the steps of planting corn with these vocational agriculture students. Ag and the Future Farmers work hand in hand in preparing these boys for farming.

These third year home economics students study color charts and swatches of fabrics while planning the interior decoration of a home. Mrs. Ruby teaches this course while Mrs. Ekstrom teaches sewing.

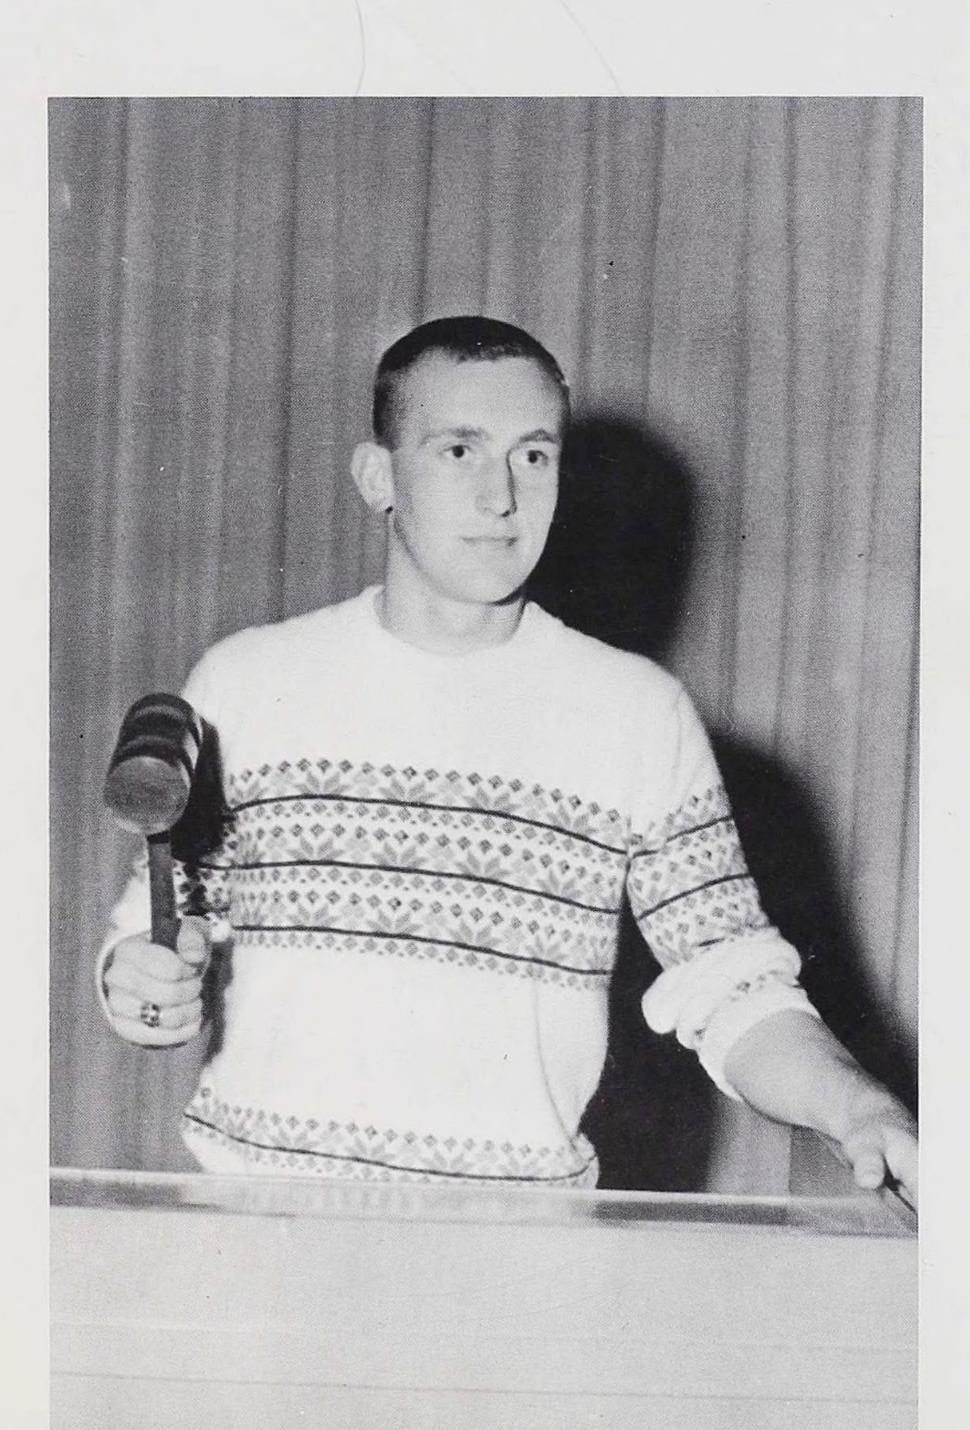

Miss Glon helps three of her eighth grade students with their artwork. Her work with the art classes produces fine works of representational and abstract art.

The music for many school assemblies as well as for churches was provided by the Glee Club, which is under the direction of Miss Hunsberger. Also in the club's schedule was a musical.

STRIVE TO PRODUCE BEST BOOK YET

Success for a yearbook staff does not just happen. Work in this club began last summer and continued under pressure for most of the year. Copy was assigned for the staff to prepare plus their work of writing captions, headlines, identifying pictures and getting ads.

The staff was headed by Carolyn Nicodemus with Pam Wykoff as assistant editor, Barb Roloff as associate editor, Claudia Stoneburner as business manager, and Mr. Haag as sponsor.

In addition to producing the yearbook the staff also sponsored the Sweetheart Swirl. Frani Folk was chairman for this project.

There is little doubt that the staff members are proud of their book, because there is a little of each of them on every page.

Claudia, Pam, Nicki, and Barb seem involved in identifying pictures for the deadline.

TATTLERS GIVEN FREE TO STUDENTS

Kathy Blake, editor-in-chief, assisted by Rich Carlin, business manager and Roberta McGuire, librarian made sure that the new Tattlers were completed and published on time. The Tattlers have changed this year, although they were still the bearers of the school news. Mr. Haag, the Tattler sponsor, supervised the production of the free issues. The papers were mimeographed to save expense. For all the up to date news concerning social events, class news, or sports, the Tattler could always be depended on.

Carol, Bron, Carol, and Kathy work tirelessly to produce the copies of the Tattler that inform the whole school.

The F.T.A. officers are busy planning one of their unusual meetings. For this one they invited the Rolling group over.

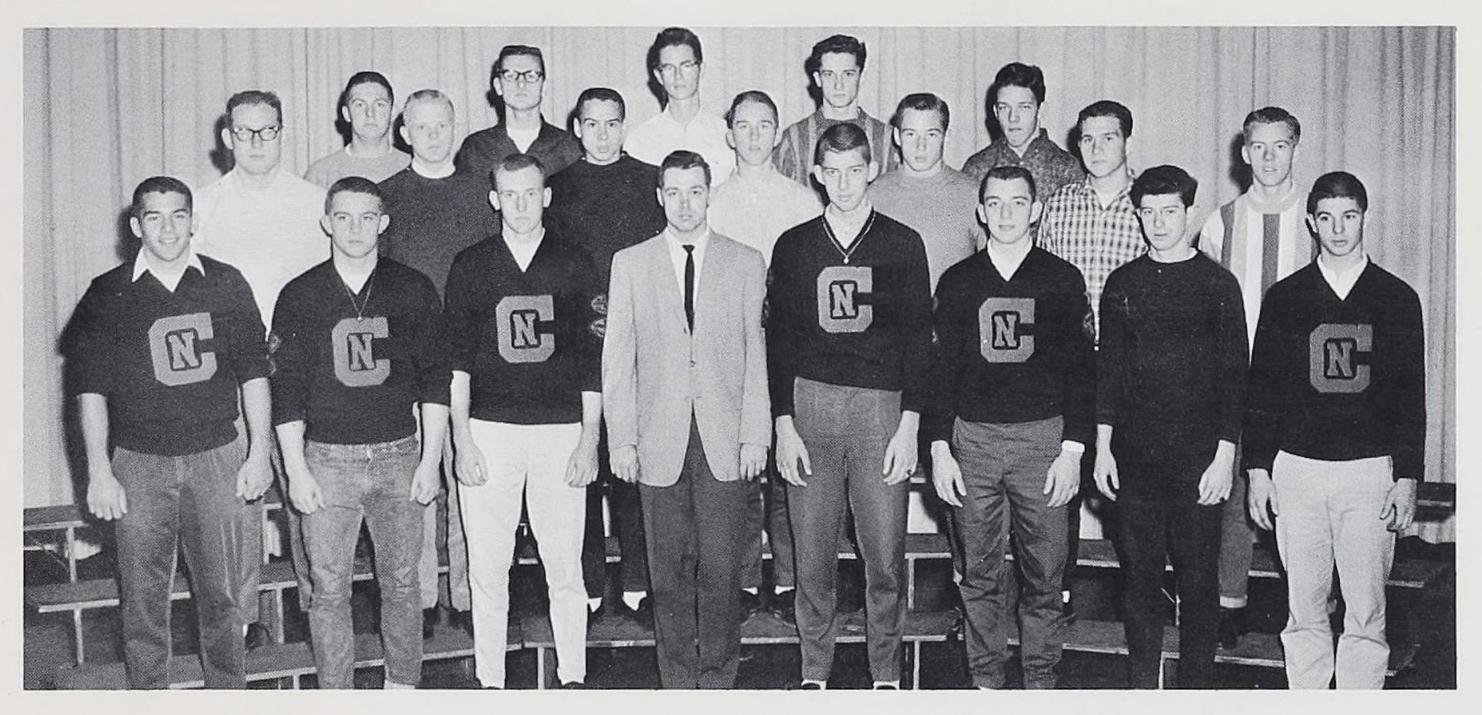

To become a teacher is the ambition of the members of the Future Teachers of America. For many years the club has helped its members attain their goals by touring various college campuses, to give the members an idea of education on a higher level. At the regular meetings there were speakers, such as new teachers and teaching specialists.

F.T.A. officers for the year were Sue Sanders, president, Dan Riffel, vice-president, Sharon Higgins, secretary, Ron Rodgers, treasurer, Rich Vida, historian, Fran Folk, librarian. The sponsors were Mr. John Hans and Mr. Joseph Tiritter.

HI-Y PROMOTES HOLIDAYS

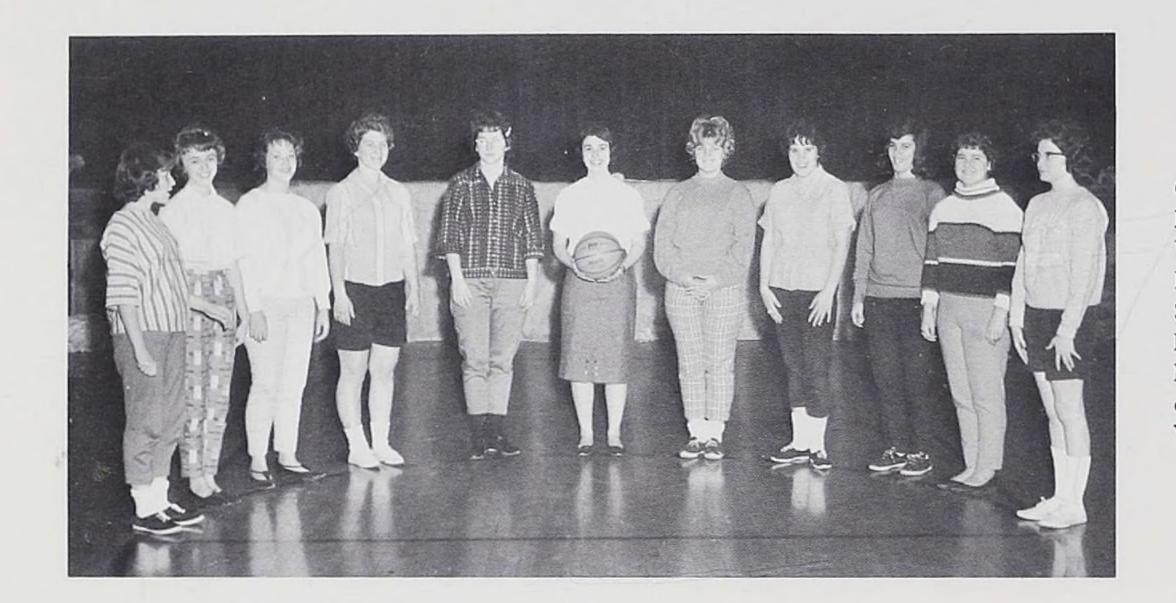

This year the Hi-Y, with Mr. Fike as their sponsor, kept active with their numerous projects. This year they maintained the football scoreboard cover, provided the varsity basketball games. They also maintained the track scoreboard, and continued their annual projects of supplying the pencil machines.

The officers for the year were Bob Johnson, president, Larry DeMeyer, vice-president, Jerry Szymanski, sectetary, Bing Harding, treasurer, Pat Higgins, chaplain, Clark Hensell, sergeant-atarms, Rick Budney, Jr. Council representative.

A strong wind might prove disastrous as these Hi-Y boys prepare the football scoreboard for winter.

G.A.A. HAS INTER-SCHOOL GAMES

The Senior Girls' Athletic Association has experienced a most enjoyable year. One of the highlights of the year was when the Club played interschool basketball and volleyball.

Among the activities that kept G.A.A. active were a dance, G.A.A. Fun Night, and the annual awards night.

The officers for the 1962-63 G.A.A. were: Rose Mary Van Laecke, President; Sally Mack, Secretary; Bonnie Van Lue, Treasurer; Pat Wilson and Nancy Nicodemus, Point Recorders; and Miss Hunsberger, Sponsor.

Not only are the G.A.A. girls good at basketball, but they can also do some modern dancing.

JR. G.A.A. KEEPS UP SPIRIT

Everyone watches the basket to see if Kitty will make two points.

The Junior Girls' Athletic Association was always full of pep and ready to play any game that was in season. Mrs. Schnick, their sponsor, made sure that every game was played according to the rules.

Diane Roesner, president, Evelyn Laureys, vice-president, Diane McNutt, secretary, Kitty Peterson, treasurer, served as officers for this year.

BOTTOM ROW--Jim Miller, Ron Sapusek, Lester Glassburn, Joe Kazmiezak, Kim Hudson, Tom Borlik, Harry Kolacz, Carl Meyers, Bill Johnson, Dean Wykoff, Dennis Ness, Anthony Rajski. "What are you building boys?" "A better tomorrow!"

As always, the outstanding organization of the Future Farmers of America again completed a year full of activities.

The annual trip to the national convention, the initiation of Green Hands, the judging events and the raising of grain for CROP occupied many evenings for the membership and their advisor, Mr. Clyde Robinson.

There learning as well as earning in these activities as well as in the trying for many awards given by the club at the annual Awards Banquet.

Carl Myers was president this year, Dan Wykoff, vice-president, Kim Hudson, secretary, and Tom Borlik, Treasurer.

The girls are all smiles after their installation into FHA officers.

The Future Homemakers of America Club was quite proud of its achievement for the year. The girls, who this year completed national requirements for the club to qualify as an honor chapter, planned a varied program, including panel discussions, guest speakers, joint meetings with other schools and with FFA chapters. The over-all goal of the organization was to help in individuals improve personal, family, and community living, now and in the future.

The officers for the club were Rosanne Toth, president, Barb Whitten, vice-president, Nancy Wiltfong, secretary, and Bonnie McGawn, treasurer. Mrs. Ruby and Mrs. Ekstrom were the sponsors with Mrs. Whitten as the Chapter Mother.

AVA BUSY ALL DAY SHOWING FILMS

"Wake up Quentin. You must have been having a nightmare. Look at that mess!"

One of the most useful clubs in our school was Audio-Visual Aides which was led this year by Melvin Dzialak, president, Gene Kelley, vice-president, Quentin Rainey, secretary, Hugh Tipton, treasurer, and Mr. Stutsman, sponsor.

The Club Operates projectors and was in charge of sound equipment, tape recorders, record players, and filmstrips.

As their money-making project this year, they sold New Carlisle bracelets and class pins.

LONG HOURS SPENT ON PROJECTS

Amazing! Imagine what it'll do when we plug it in.

Under the guidance of its officers Kathy Blake, president, Gretchen Downey, vicepresident, Gerry Dodd, secretary, George Casaday, treasurer, Neal Downey, reporter, Marsha Hansen, historian, and its sponsor, Mr. Voorheis, the Science Clubbegan an active program for the year. Regular meetings were highlighted by the annual initiation ceremony and demonstrations of projects by club members. The club enjoyed hearing informative lectures by several prominent guests.

The high points of the year were the Second Annual Science Project Fair held at the school and several trips to other science fairs and scientific organizations.

HEALTH CAREERS CLUB

This club adopted a new name and program at the start of the year. Aided by their sponsor, Miss Morton, and officers Barb Kolacz, president, Linda Brasseur, vice-president, Gerri Bauters, secretary, and Wanda Rowe, treasurer, the club enjoyed a series of speakers and films related to medical occupations. Highlights of the year included a tour of Memorial Hospital and ceremonies at which officers and new members were installed.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council, the governing body of the school, carried on its usual activities of locker inspection, cheerleading election, and counting the ballets for queens. They also sponsored a sock hop and helped purchase records for the school.

The officers for the year were Chip Baginski, president, Chuck Toth, vice-president, Ann O'Laughlin, secretary-treasurer. Their sponsor was Mr. Bob Noel.

SOLO AND ENSEMBLE CONTESTANTS

Under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Johns, the New Carlisle Bands completed another busy year.

Highlighting the marching season which included parades, football games, and various other performances, was the State Fair.

During the concert season, after successfully completing marching with several awards the band participated in the annual band and solo-ensemble contests.

As one of the most active organizations at NC, the band played at the football games.

TIGERETTES PERFORM AGAIN

The marching tigerettes have shown their precision drilling skill during the school year by performing at the varsity ball games.

Miss Judy Stockton led the marching girls on their way to stardom. Mr. Blaine Gamble, the tigerette sponsor, planned the drills for each performance. Perhaps the most outstanding show of the year was the portrayal of several broadway musicals including West Side Story.

The Tigerettes' work is far from finished with the closing of school. During the summer, the drill team performs at some of the largest parades. But, most important of all, the tigerettes feel the excitement and joy of seeing "behind the scenes" of a successful show.

This squad of Tigerettes salutes the fans at a varsity b ketball game during their show.

PEP CLUB CHEERS ON TEAMS

With the help and ideas of their sponsor, Mr. Blaine Gamble, and the officers, who were Pat VanHeesbeke, President, Fran Folk, Vice-President, and Laura Lou Smith, Secretary-Treasurer, the Pep Club has had two successful projects this year. Instead of performing at the games, the members added to school spirit with their projects. They invited the Penn Cheerleaders to attend and lead cheers at the pep session before our football game with Penn October 5, 1962. The club served punch and cake to the cheerleaders and sponsors afterwards. The second project was making the TOURNEY SPECIAL, a huge poster telling about past tourney games and about this year's team.

LETTERMEN START WITH CAR WASH

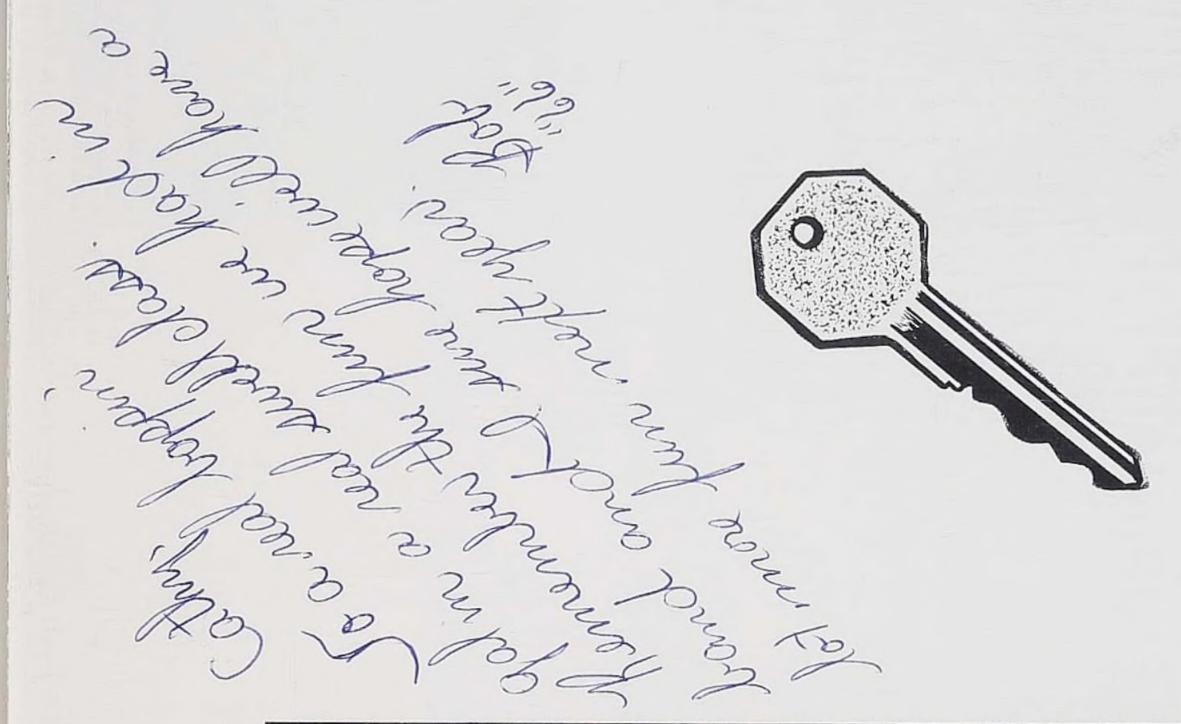

After being inactive for a year the Lettermen elected officers and began planning activities to be carried out during the year. Those elected were Bob Johnson, president, Dave Hancz, vice-president, Larry DeMeyer, secretary-treasurer, Jim Glon, sergeant -at-arms, and Mr. Rush and Mr. Tolmen, sponsors.

A big event was the ordering of the Senior letter jackets. Among other activities was a successful car wash and a funfilled party.

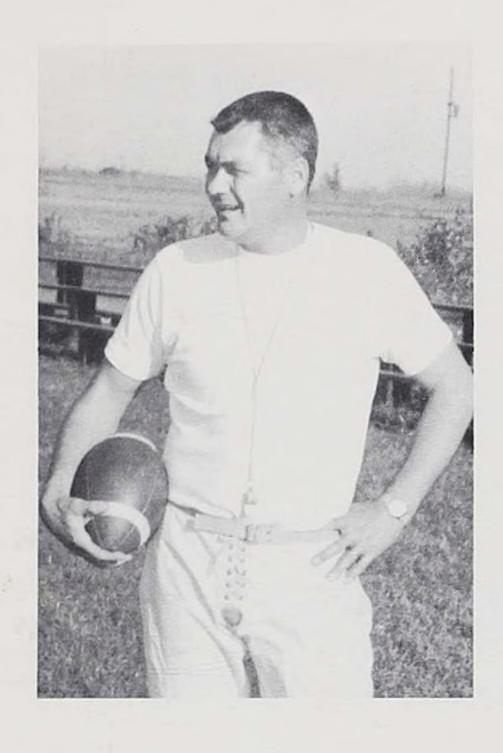

Proud of the trophies these Lettermen, Dave, Jim, Bob, and Larry, straighten the case.

The New Carlisle football team made it three in a row by winning the Northern State Conference for the third straight year.

After losing two of the first three games of the season, the Tigers scored easy victories in all the other games except the Penn contest which ended in a tie. When the Homecoming game against North Judson arrived, New Carlisle fans were not disappointed because the Tigers crushed their conference opponent.

MANAGERS--Clark Hensell, John Lloyd.

The New Carlisle Tiger basketball team enjoyed a winning season under the direction of Coach Bob Noel. Their record was 11-10.

The Lions Club of New Carlisle was pleased to honor the basketball athletes at its annual banquet. The following awards were presented to: Carl Meyers for the most rebounds, Bing Harding for the best free-throw percentage, Jerry Szymanski for the Most Valuable player, Con Estep for the Captain, and Don Estep, also for Sportsmanship.

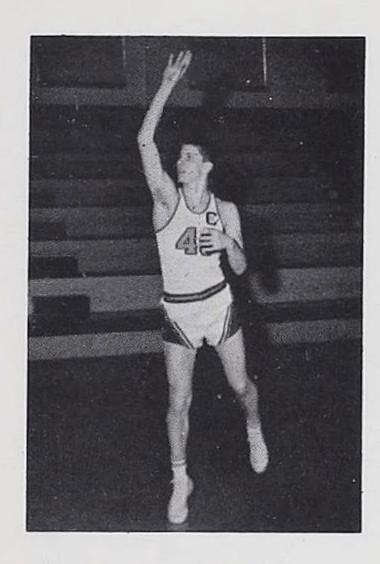

Against North Liberty, Jerry has an easy two points.

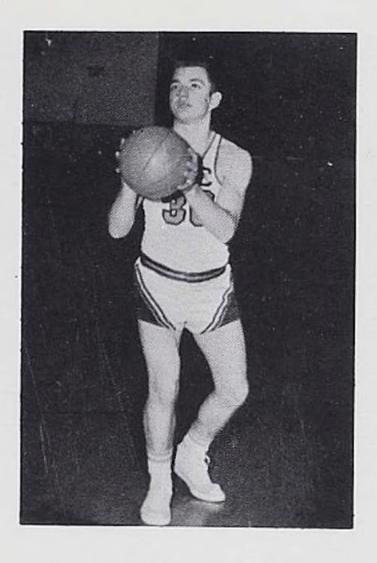

A noble attempt by Bing Harding to take that rebound from a Lakeville opponent.

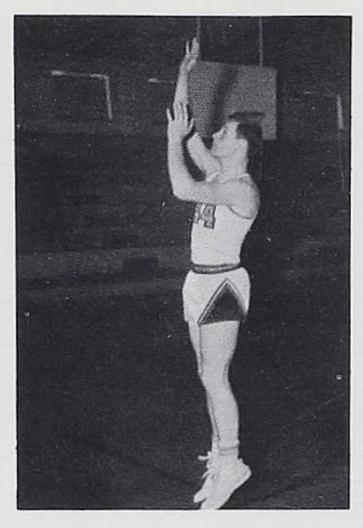

The ball is roaming fre as Jerry trips through some Lakeville team members.

GAMBLE HEADS TRACK — CROSS COUNTRY

Chuck is trying hard to overcome an opponent from Wash-Clay.

The track athletes practiced in the gym for nearly three weeks before running on the track. These pre-season workouts paid off later in the season at the regular meets and at the County Track Meet, where the team placed high enough to retain the Conference All Sports trophy. The team was coached by Blaine Gamble.

"Don makes it again!" That was a familiar cry during the season as here he makes his final vault to tie for first at the Country Track Meet.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM--Pat Higgins, Rick Budny, Jim McClaran, Don Estep, Ed Wilson, Ned Steele, Bill Argabright, Mr. Gamble.

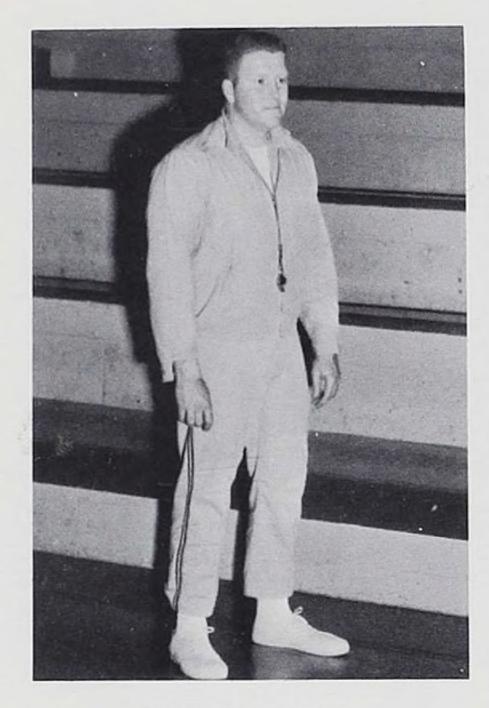

Bob is straining as he tries to beat his opponent to the next runners in the relay.

"Little but mighty" is a good term to describe this years' Cross Country team. The boys had a fine season under the coaching of Blaine Gamble. They finished the season with an 11-5 record. They did especially well at Indianapolis, where they finished fourth in their division, and each member of the team and Coach Gamble received a plaque.

TWO NEW SPORTS ADDED TO VARSITY

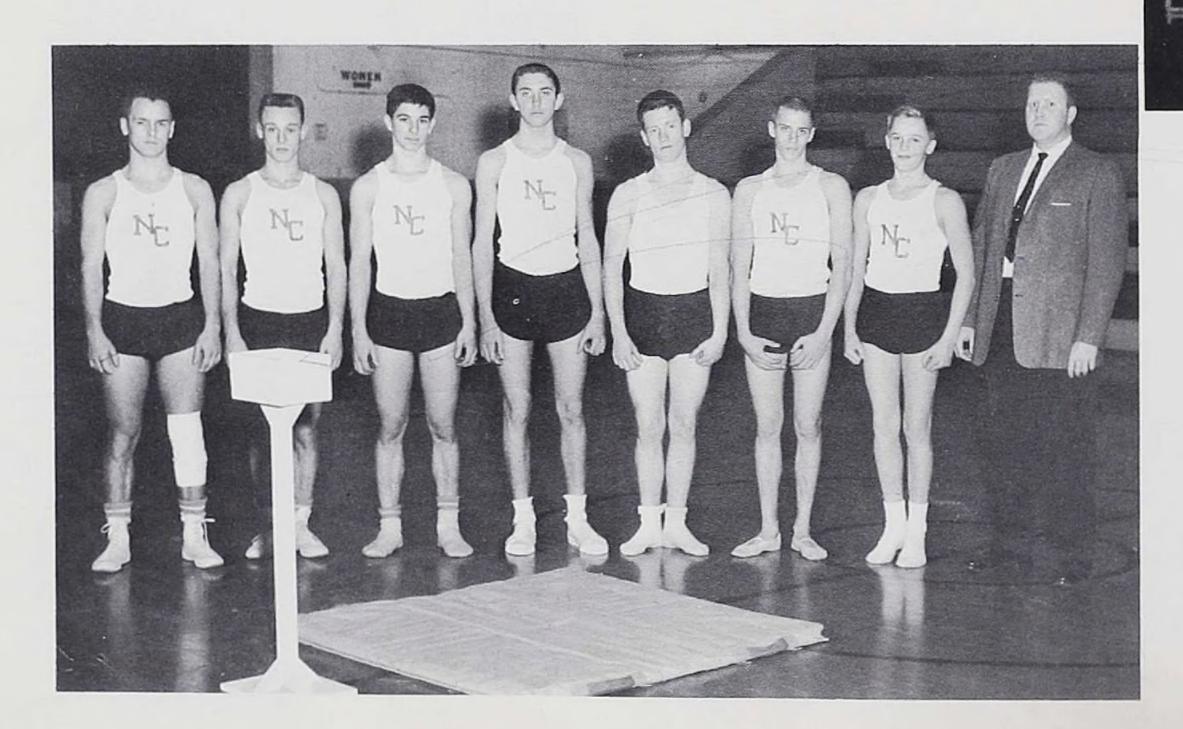

Jim practices one of the many exercises for the horse.

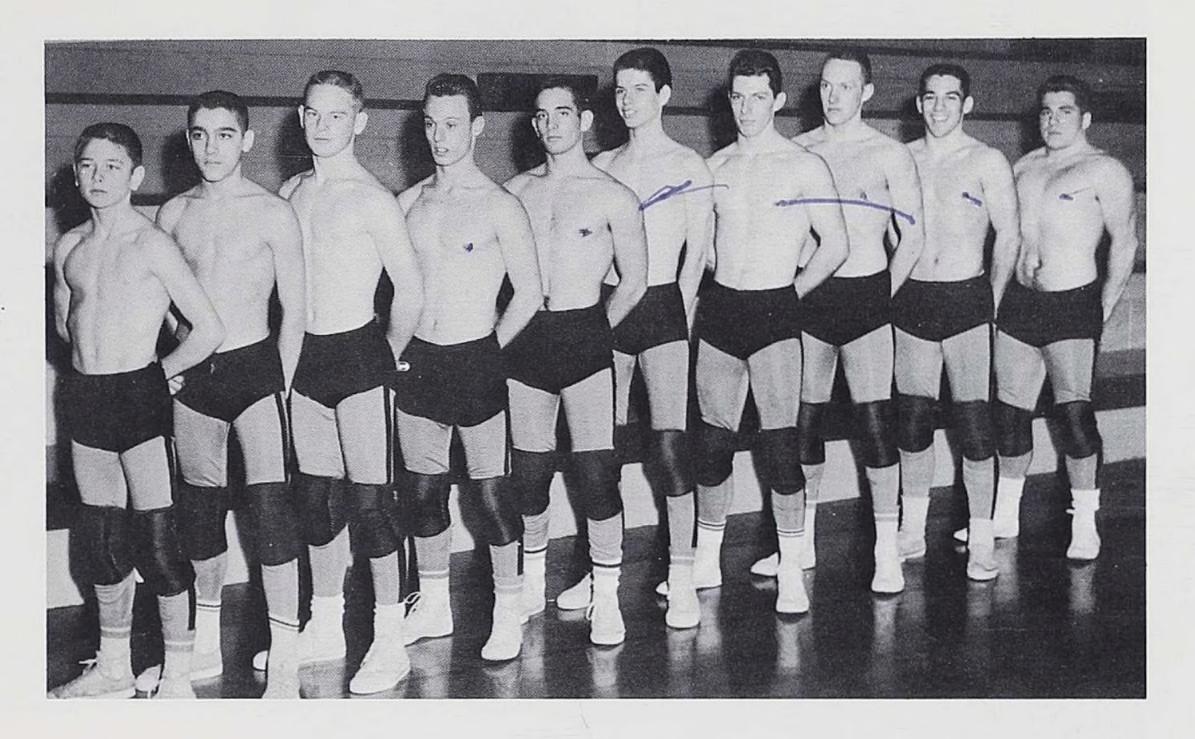

After being a club for two years, the gymnastics members were finally able to have their status changed to that of varsity sport.

The coaching of the team was done by Don Rush. The boys learned many stunts and as a result, three boys participated in the state gymnastics meet.

Ray tries what he has learned on the rings.

WRESTLING TEAM-Ron Wilson; Richard Sponseller, Ron Conley,
Jim Lambie, Dave Conley, Bill Stockton, Bill
Argabright, Dick Schaub,
Jim Glon, Gene Janski.

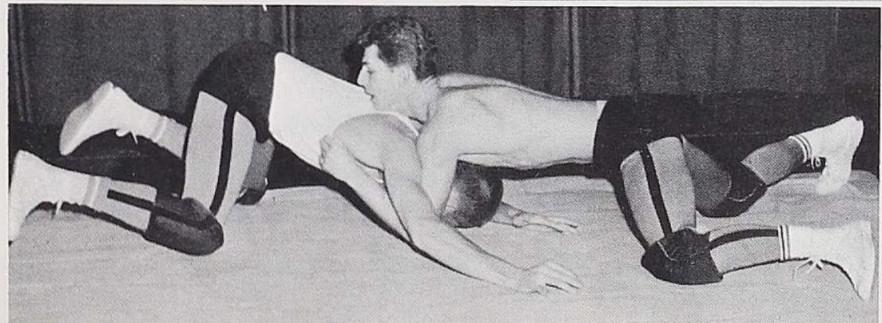

After dropping wrestling for four years, it was re-established as a varsity sport. The Tiger wrestlers began the season with new uniforms and great enthusiasm.

Don Rush took over the duties of getting the boys in shape and teaching them the "fine art" of wrestling. Members of the team gained valuable experience although they did not enjoy a winning season.

Dick has Bill in quite a hold, as Bill Stockton prepares to help.

Bill gets even with Dick, but no one is around to help him!

The National Honor Society started its year off in a flash with the induction of new members. The officers, Carl Meyers, president, Reva Clark, vice-president, Gretchen Downey, secretary, Burdette Casaday, treasurer were elected last fall, and they along with the members planned a trip to the state legislature. They sponsored a sock hop after a basketball game. The sponsors were Mr. Millard Taylor and Miss Alice Morton.

The National Honor planned an assembly honoring Mrs. Wade for her years as librarian at the public library.

Football season was highlighted this year by the coronation of the Homecoming Queen. Changing the usual procedure, the candidates, nominated by the various clubs, had only to tell their talent and answer a question.

The big event took place after the game, and Barb Kulwicki, a senior, was crowned by Reva Clark, Miss New Carlisle--1962.

COURT: Darlene Bilinski, Fran Folk, Barb Roloff, and Ruth Milcoff.

Football Candidates: Gayle Wilson, Carolyn Nicodemus, Barb Kulwicki, Carolyn Shaum, Barb Roloff, Lynn Murray, Barb Mack, Judi Stockton, Reva Clark, Pam Wykoff, Kathy Blake, Vicki Graberak, Linda Berning, Fran Folk, Carlene Bilinski, Ruth Milcoff, Barb Lewis.

"The Key to My Heart" was the theme of the Sweetheart Swirl presented by the 1962-63 Olive Branch staff. Students twisted to the music of the Phantom Five in the midst of glittering cupids, hearts, and the dazzling keys which set the scene for the Prince and Princess of Hearts.

Miss Ginger Fann, last year's Princess, crowned the Prince and Princess of Hearts for 1963.

Candidates: Carl Meyers, Marolyn Shaum, Donnie Estep, Claudia Stoneburner, Randy Noland, Liz Shaum, Rick Budny, Jean Ryan, Margie Zakrowski, Dale Glon, Nancy Kovach, Dick Bromley, Peggy Watson, Tim Moffitt, Mary Miller, Rich Kopkowski.

"Announcing the 1963 Basketball Homecoming Queen--Carolyn Shaum!" That was the climax to a thrilling evening for the seventeen candidates elected from the clubs.

Due to snow and loss of time from school, the candidates were not presented to the student body; instead each girl wore a name tag to identify herself.

Carolyn was crowned by Darle Hoover, president of the Alumni Association, at a dance after the North Liberty game. Pat Kelley, the first runner-up, will reign as Track Queen.

COURT--Pam Wykoff, Janice Haines, Carol Hovver, Pat Kelley.

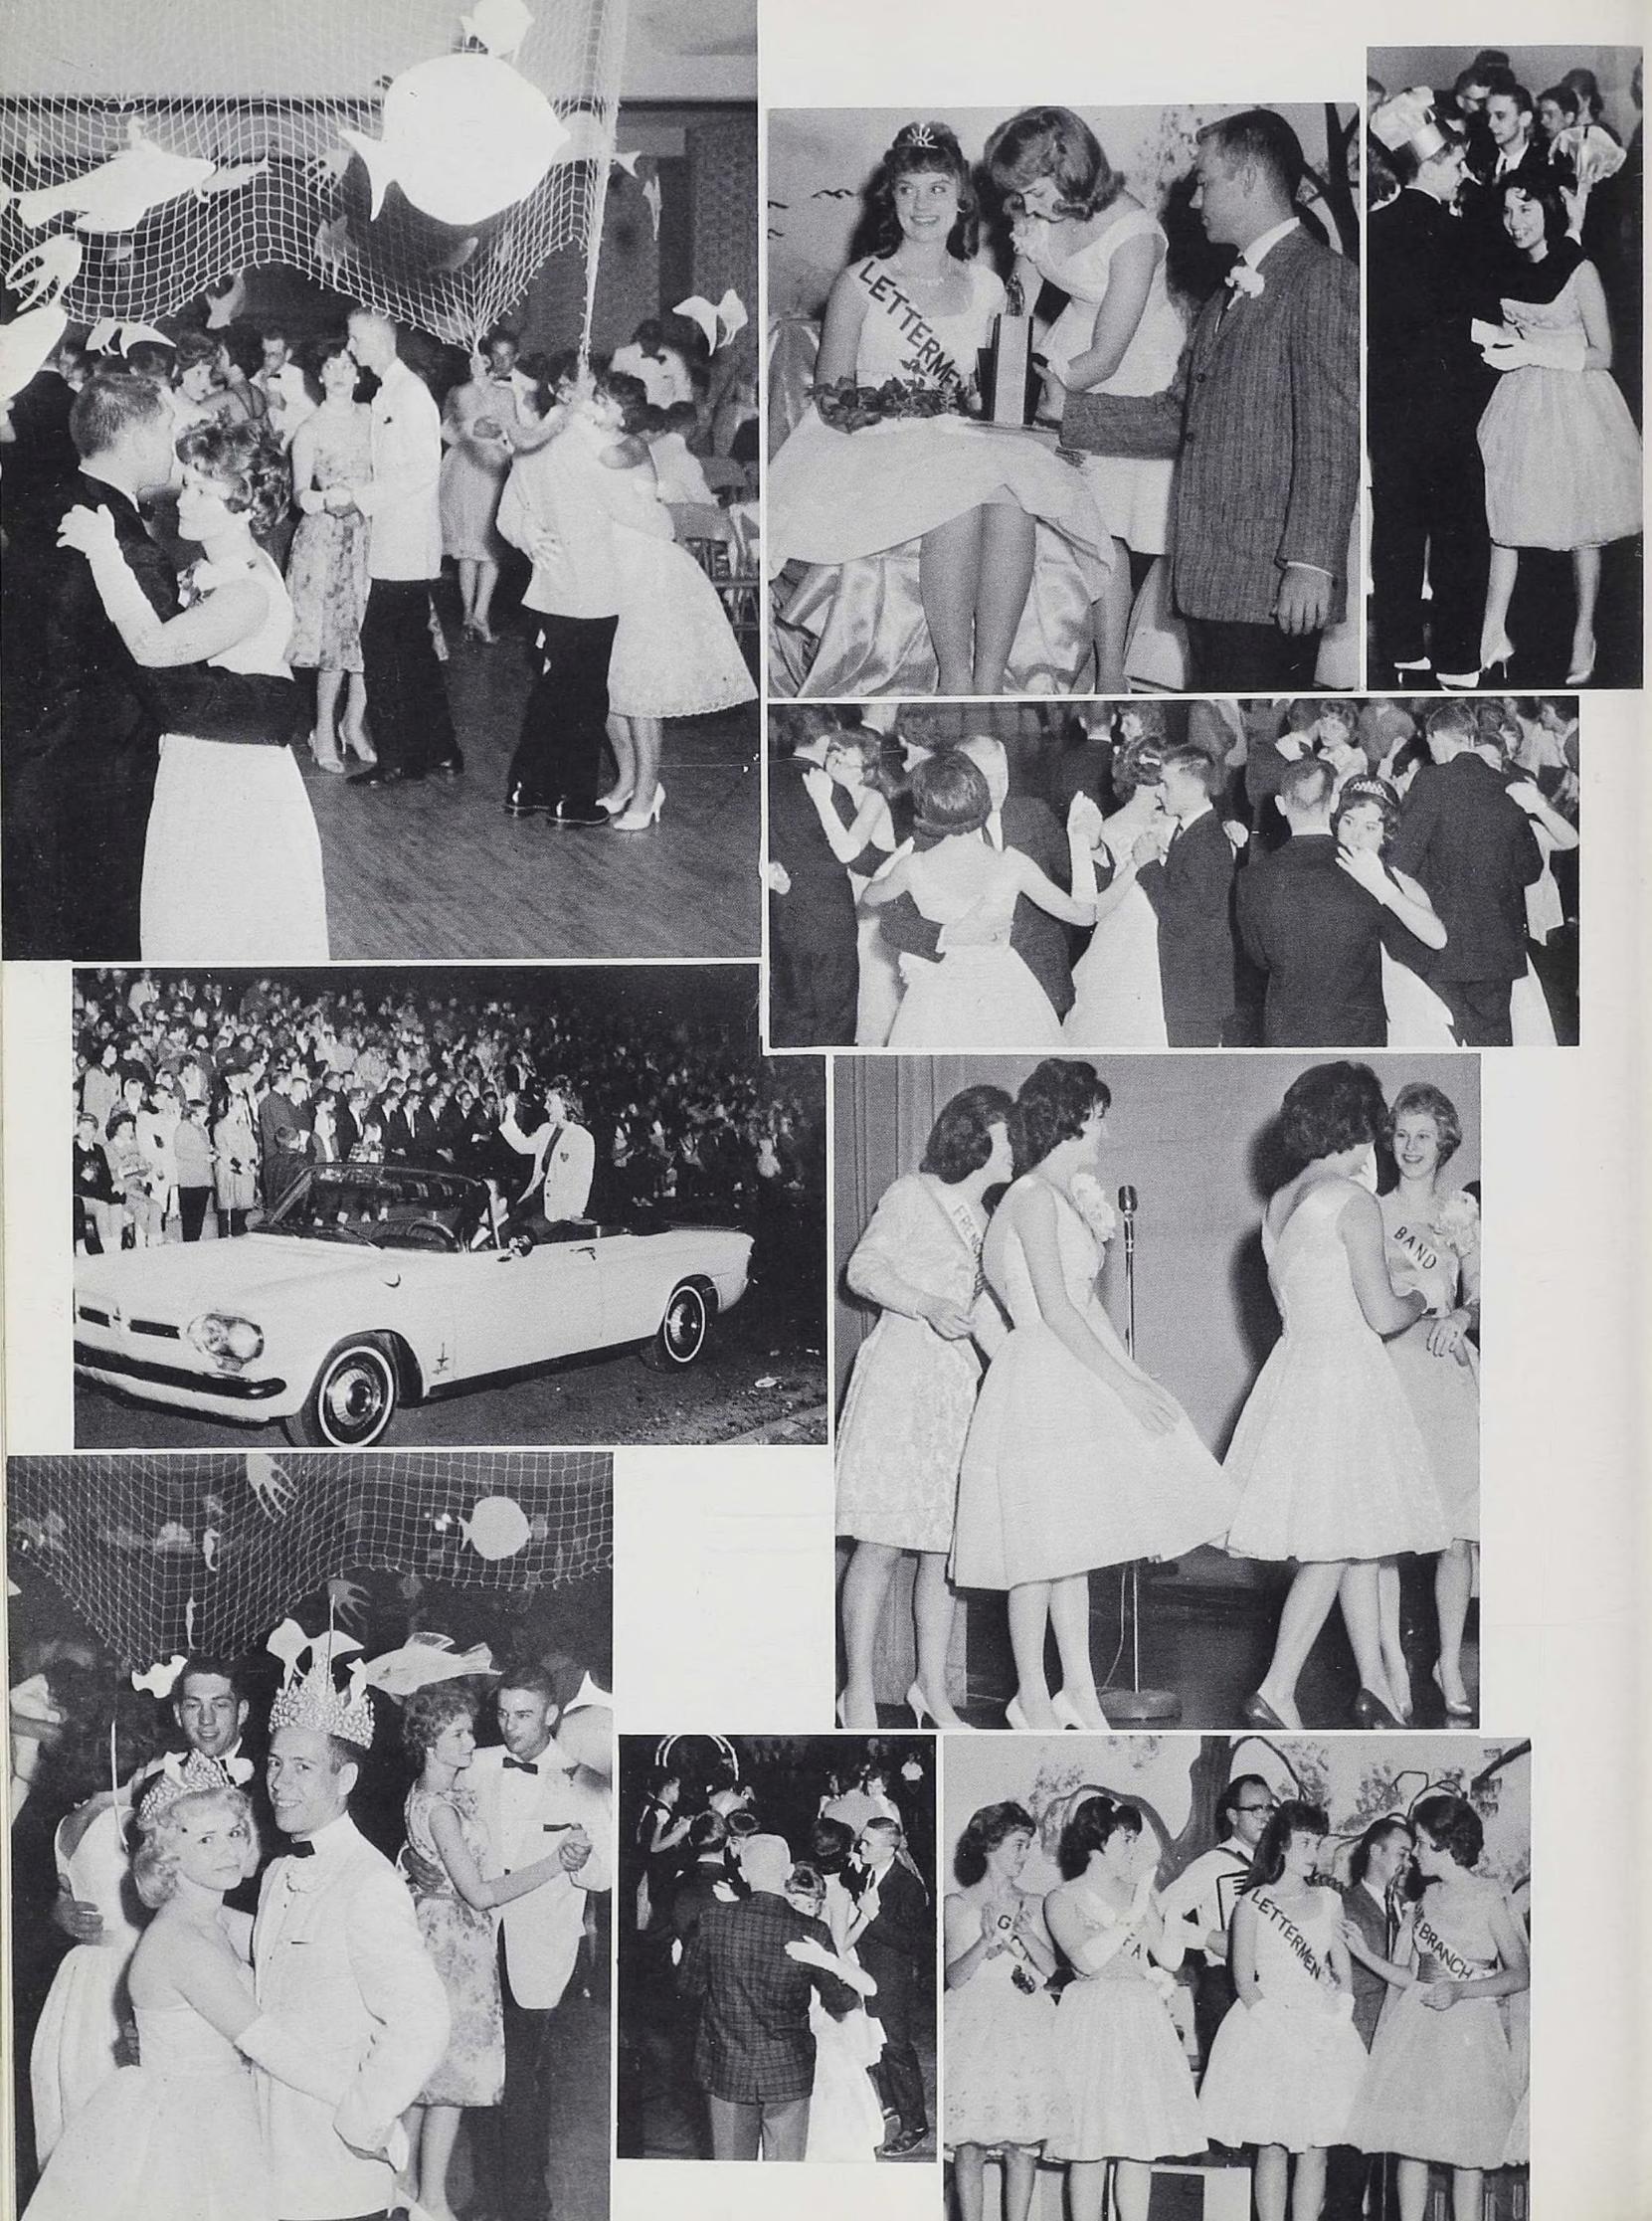

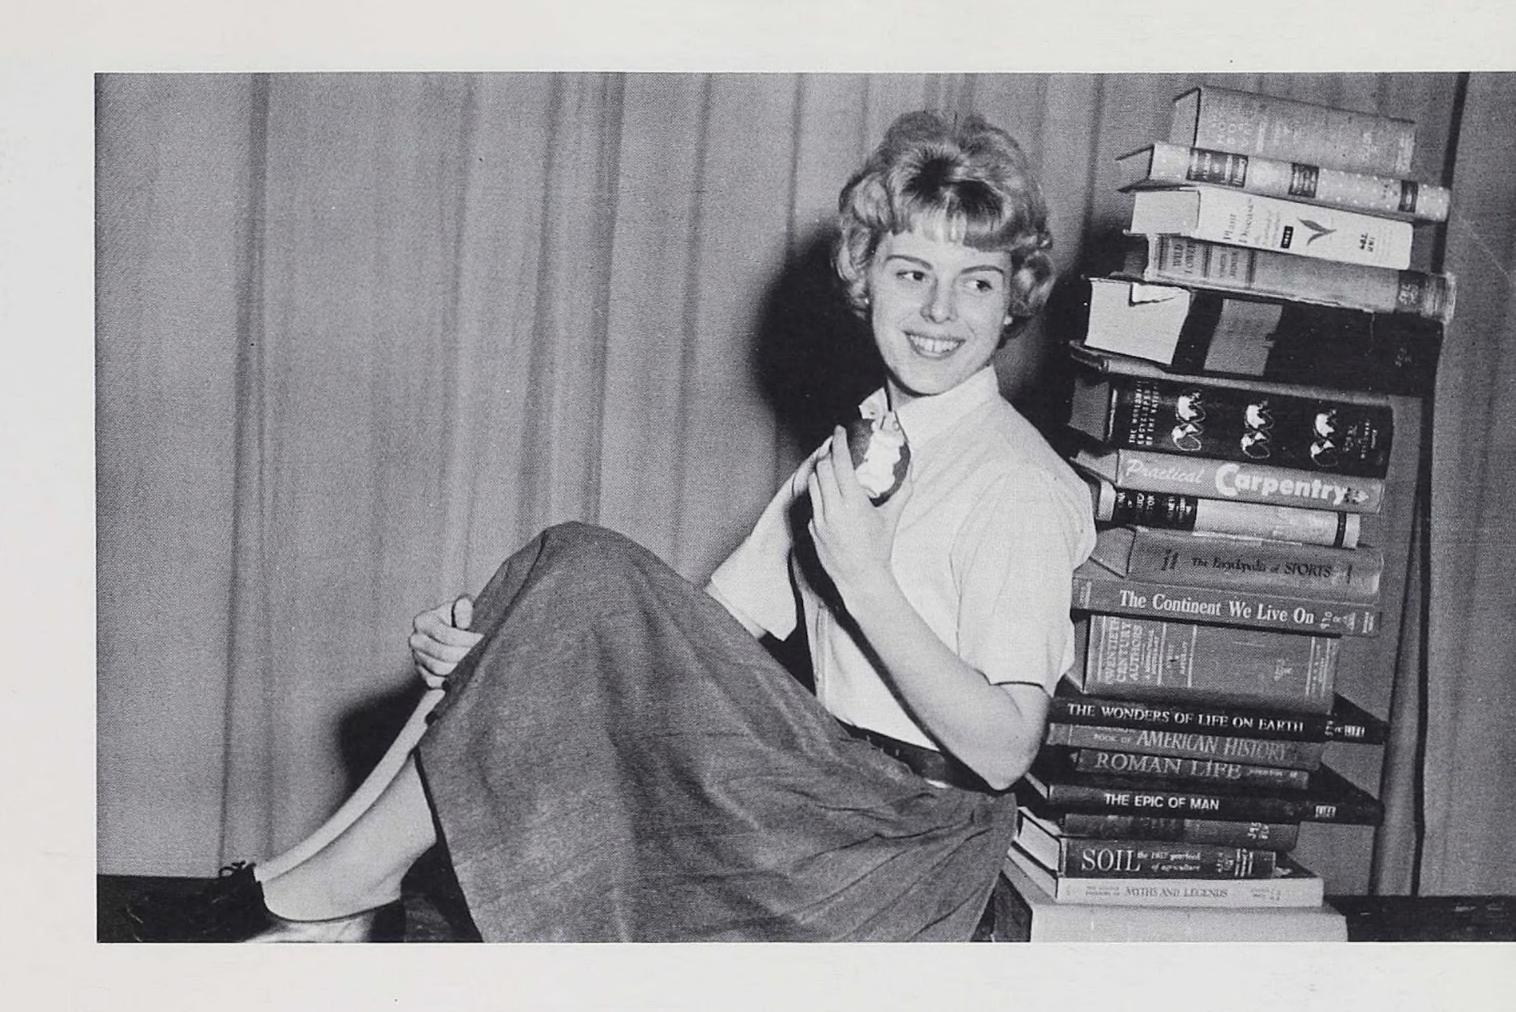

Basketball Candidates: Liz Shaum, Marcia Clendenen, Pat Holsinger, Sue Bromley, Sandy Shoff, Kathy Blake, Pam Wykoff, Pat Kelley, Laura Smith, Rose Mary VanLaecke, Barb Kolach, Lynn Murray, Rosie Bennitt, Cathy Baldecki, (SEATED) Janice Haines, Carolyn Shaum, Carol Hoover.

"Deep Sea Dream" was the theme for the 1962 Junior-Senior Prom, and a dream it was as everyone danced to the music of Frankie Kitt and his Orchestra. The Knights of Columbus Hall was remarkably transformed into beautiful underwater scenery.

The crowning of the Prom King and Queen, Orville Brown and Sharon Dubois, highlighted the evening.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS -- Fran Folk, treasurer; Rich Vida, president; Bob Tennyson, vice-president; Kathy Blake, secretary move up in the world.

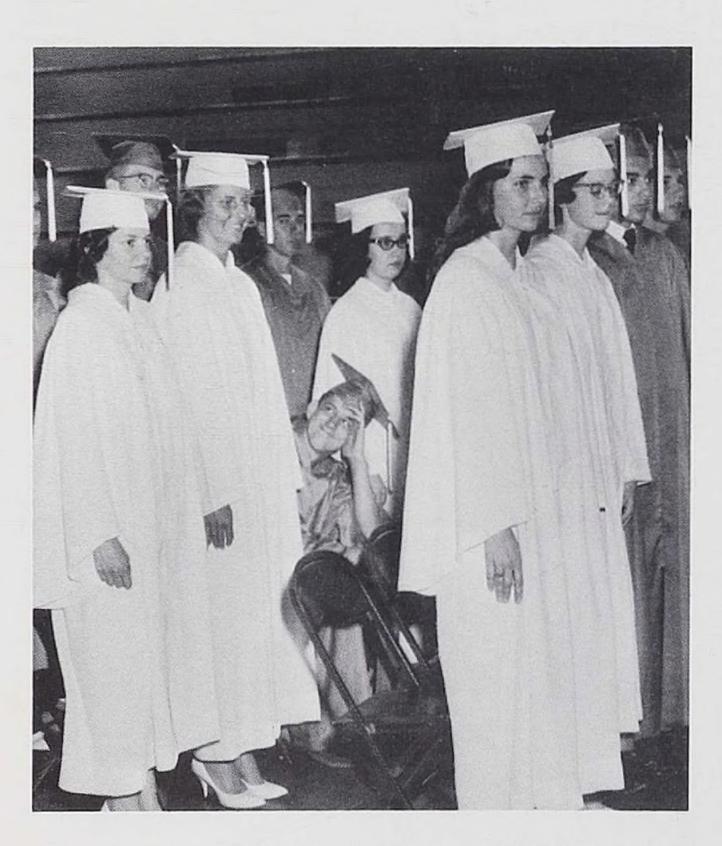

The key to the Seniors' success was thinking positively that they were the best class in school. They set about letting the rest of the school know by being the most unusual Freshman class to hit NCHS. They gained knowledge of running through the halls, maneuvering their way to class just seconds before the bell, and a host of ways of missing class.

They opened their Sophomore year by ordering striking blue jackets. So the other students would not forget which class was greatest, the Sophomores began making places for themselves in organizations, scholarship, community, and athletics.

In the final struggle to prove superiority the Junior year commenced rapidly with selection of the rings, plans for a number one prom, and the presentation of a successful play. Top honors and positions were taken by Juniors over the Seniors.

They entered their Senior year with few years, for they were the proven unequaled class. The Seniors came in like lions and will leave like lions, but their lives have been rich and filled with experiences that have prepared them for the years ahead.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Juniors used their key to success to produce what they thought was the best promever. Committees, with a good supply of leadership, were chosen to launch the plans.

A much awaited event was the selection of class rings. However, the Juniors proved themselves to be in the know when they chose oval stones that turned out to be one of the nicest rings in NCHS history.

The class party came and went without the bat of a Junior eyelash. The assumption that it would be a tremendous success was correct.

Yes, the Juniors used their key well and learned quickly the ranks of upperclassmen. They should now be ready to face the responsibilities of being Seniors.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS -- Dick Bromley, president; Lois Jackson, treasurer; Dick Nelson, vice-president; Sally Mack, secretary carry some of their profit from the magazine sale to the school office.

As the largest class at NCHS the Sophomores used their key to show the rest of the school that they were go-getters and starting their first lap to success as soon as school began.

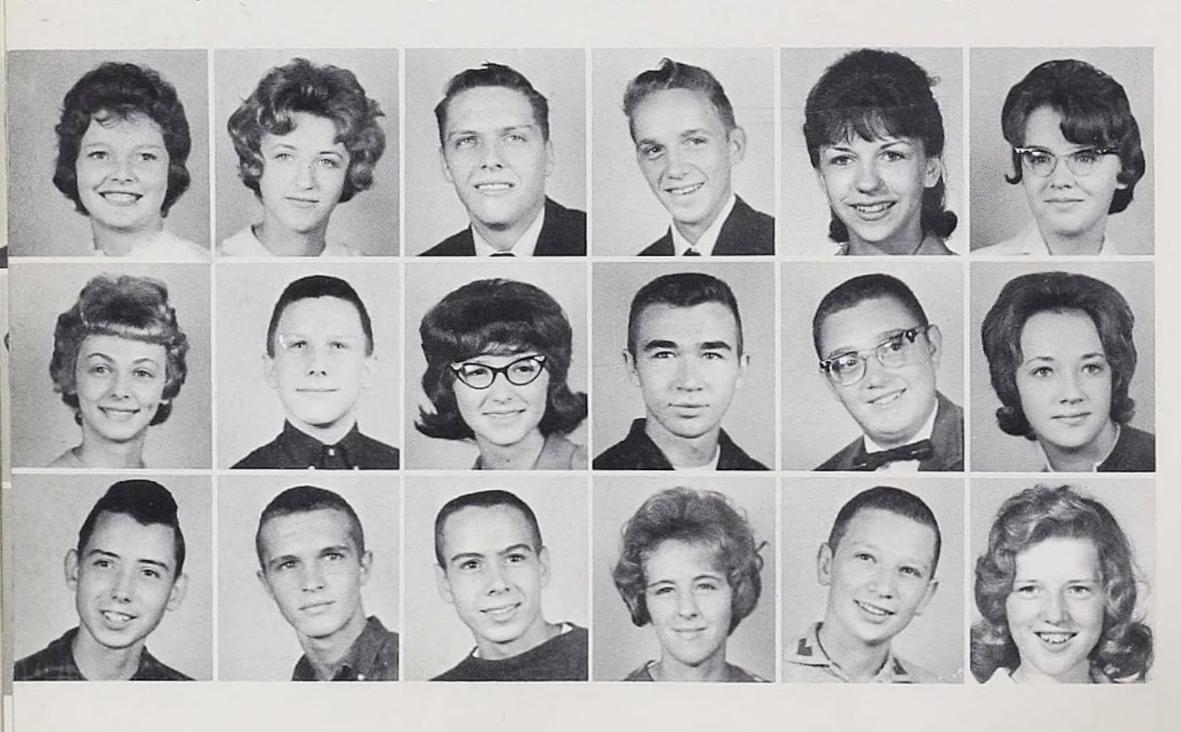

They were soon entangled in the vote on the color for their class jackets. Parties for each nominated color, campaigned vigorously to sway those "undecided" votes. However, powder blue won out making a majority happy.

No sooner was that decision out of the way when the Sophomores launched their magazine sale. This sale is the project that will provide the money for the prom next spring. A transistor tape recorder and other great prizes caused much of the hard work that helped the Sophomores reach their goal.

If these few projects of the many sponsored by the Sophomores serve as an example of their capabilities, then 1965 is certainly assured a distinguished graduating class.

FRESHMAN CLASS

The Freshmen moved right into life at NCHS. Having just acquired their new key toward success, they decided to test it on various activities.

The election of their own cheerleaders started things rolling. Those girls chosen were promptly put to work raising class spirit and attendance at their games.

The Freshmen then jumped into plans for the class party. With all the lively enthusiasm behind those plans, the party had to be a success.

No doubt the Freshmen found many responsibilities placed on their shoulders, but they accepted them along with the pleasures. A good start for a good class.

Cathy-To one of the sewellest girls at M.C. I just don't know what I would do if I ever lost wonderful friendship. I am so glad theit we had the chance to spend our ou part of over Junior year together. I hope seen Denier year will be just as great if not gealer than this year. I hope intelle Jean to come we well alway remain that Julado. 2 wish you and Darry everything in the world you two really deserve it. De 20 cool D'hope you wor well alway le tegether I first cont image you have a rood leek te a wonderfiell WELLOMEWOU deservées a hod lileas andspier Mitables always, I am looking forward to spind To a student not familiar with yearbook production, the work one by the Olive Branch staff this year may not have looked like "real" work. Besides taking pictures and drawing layouts, there was quite a bit of mental work involved v our club's activities. All headlines, captions, and divisions must be thought out carefully before placing them on the layout sheets.

Although we definitely had our troubles, we have tried to present the "Key to the Success of 1963" as nearly as it was. We tried to capture all the action before or as it happened, if we did not get that action, it did not appear on the previous pages.

Our thanks go to Max Haag, sponsor, Anthony Wareszewski, photographer, Bob Albertson, American Yearbook Company representative, the Olive Branch staff, and all the companies, stores, and patrons who made the production of this book possible. Also, we wish to thank the teachers who so graciously let us interupt their classes to take pictures.

We have achieved a yearbook -- a book of memories -- that we are proud of; we want you to be proud, too!

Jane-- Cathy-Well this well take some doing but I ques tel fill the paye up. hemember all the memories we have but most of allthe one we are going to make. This years has been the happiners of my life. To go with a person like you must be a gift from God. It makes me sail to think that next years you will be in school and I wouldn't be the one that you will have to put up will. But on one dates you will have to put up with me and I hope you put up with me for the vest of my lef. Romember are little talks which I think did a lat of good, Romomber my moods at the wedding. But I couldn't help it. Romember one plans for the future which I hope I will always be part of. Romamber, the time we almost called it, quits or should I say forget. But I thenk that the brought us closer together. Well I guess that all. as you know for now, Romember I love you always,
